

Lama Khemsar Rinpoche

Will be in Avebury, Wiltshire from Tuesday 3rd- Monday 9th August 2009 for a week of Teachings, Public Talks and Private One to One Consultations

Lama Khemsar Rinpoche is the founder and spiritual director of the Tibetan Yungdrung Bön Study Centre. The Lama is an eminent teacher of the Yungdrung Bön spiritual tradition and is renowned for his lively teaching style and sparkling wit. He originally hails from south Tibet, where he and his elder brother Lama Sonam G. Khemsar are the lineage holders of their two monasteries – Pungmo Gon and Lhari Nyiphug - both of which were founded by Master Zhu Namgyal Drakpa.*

The Yungdrung Bön Tradition

Yungdrung Bön, meaning 'Eternal Light' or 'Enlightened Teaching', is the original and authentic spiritual tradition of Tibet. It is based on the principle of practicing unconditional love and compassion towards all and is Thegpa Chenpo or Mahayana in its approach. Many of the teachings are similar to those found in the four principal schools of Buddhism, especially the Nyingma-pa school, and are aimed at enabling all to access Enlightenment and freedom from the shackles of Samsara.
